

PERSONAL CARE NETWORK INVENTORY FOR YOUTH LEADERS

A "Personal Care Network" includes the people outside of your professional circles whom you rely on in times of crises, trauma, or disaster. People with strong relationships in areas listed below tend to report feeling more resilient when facing traumatic stress. These care relationships may include family members, friends, mentors, or behavioral wellness providers. In preparation for the next critical incident you may face, take time now to identify persons with whom you need to introduce yourself or strengthen relationship. Note, the listing below is a guide and you do not need to complete all the lines to achieve a healthy relational lifestyle. To feel supported, strive to build or strengthen relationships with at least 7 out of 10 areas below. Store a copy of this worksheet in a place you easily can access when you need it.

At any time, If you are concerned for your health or well-being, please consult with your primary physician or mental health care provider.
